

Protocol for Undergraduate Academic Credit for Prior Learning
through Portfolio Assessment

One of the missions of Eastern Kentucky University (EKU) is to “develop informed, critical and creative thinkers who can communicate effectively.” To that end, completion of significant program specific coursework at EKU is expected in order to earn a degree. Although course work from other regionally accredited institutions transfers to EKU, student learning outcomes (SLO) must be substantially the same as courses offered at EKU to receive equivalency for EKU classes.

Policy 4.2.11, Non-EKU Academic Credit, recognizes that occasionally students have completed education, training classes, and work experiences that result in learning that sufficiently meets or exceeds major-/minor-specific coursework at EKU; therefore, formal recognition of that body of knowledge, without taking the particular course, is warranted upon evaluation by appropriately qualified faculty. The procedure below allows EKU students who are admitted, enrolled, degree seeking, have earned 12 credit hours at EKU in a recent term, and are on good academic standing, to demonstrate competence in SLOs of specific courses and thus receive EKU academic credit in those subject areas.

This protocol outlines how EKU will award credit for prior learning (PL) and experiences through portfolio evaluation.

Procedure

1. Students may request credit for PL for a specific course by completing the Request for Academic Credit by Portfolio Assessment form and submitting it to the appropriate department chair.
2. A subject matter expert with faculty rank will be assigned by the appropriate department chair or dean and must agree to serve as portfolio reviewer and will evaluate the portfolio provided to determine if credit for the course should be awarded.
3. Once approval to submit a portfolio is received and a faculty member assigned, students will prepare a portfolio as described below.
4. Any student wishing credit for more than one course must submit a separate portfolio per course for which credit is requested.
5. If more than one portfolio is submitted by a student, no more than 10% of the contents of one portfolio (training credentials, course syllabi, certificates, etc.) can be reused to meet learning objectives of a separate course within the same discipline.
6. A portfolio for PL must include the SLOs for the identified course as outlined in the master syllabus from that course.
7. Students will include a narrative describing the educational or work experience being used to demonstrate competency, including any projects, course/training content, observations, research, or the like.
8. The narrative must specifically address each SLO of the course for which credit is sought, and references within the narrative must connect specific assertions to supporting documents. Supporting documents may include, but are not limited to:
 - a) certificates of completion from courses along with course descriptions;
 - b) certifications that demonstrate competence in a subject area;

- c) letters indicating course completion, including specifics on delivery date and method;
 - d) course syllabi;
 - e) teaching and/or student outlines for training/professional development classes;
 - f) tests taken during training/professional development classes;
 - g) assignments produced by the student to demonstrate competence;
 - h) work products prepared by the student that indicate competence in a specific subject;
 - i) photographs of activities in progress;
 - j) letters from persons familiar with the student's competence in a specific area; and
 - k) other documents or work products that support the claim of competence in outcomes for the course.
9. Responsibility of demonstrating competence with the SLOs rests with the student requesting credit for PL for the course.
 10. A portfolio fee of $50 per credit hour will be assessed and shall be paid by the student to Student Accounting prior to tendering the portfolio to the relevant department office.
 11. The student shall tender a copy of the receipt for the paid portfolio fee along with the portfolio and the Credit for Prior Learning Student Portfolio Academic Credit Report Form to the relevant department for assessment.
 12. The portfolio fee is paid to the reviewer as supplemental pay, regardless of the credit recommendation, providing the reviewer completes the process within a three week window and submits the required credit assessment form. If the reviewer fails to begin the review process within three weeks of the student tendering the portfolio to the department, the reviewer will forfeit the reviewing fee. In such a situation the department chair/dean may assign the portfolio review to an alternate faculty.
 13. The reviewer will complete his/her section on the Credit for Prior Learning Student Portfolio Academic Credit Report Form.
 14. The reviewer will provide the Registrar's Office with the original signed version of the Credit for Prior Learning Student Portfolio Academic Credit Report Form. Once the department receives a copy of the report the department will complete the supplemental pay request, authorizing the student portfolio fee to be provided to the reviewing faculty.
 15. If the portfolio reviewer determines credit can be awarded, the student will receive CR credit for the equivalent course. CR credit does not count toward the student's grade point average (GPA) but will satisfy degree requirements for appropriate courses.
 16. Departments awarding credit for PL through portfolio assessment shall forward the original portfolio to the Registrar for records retention. If requested, students may have a copy of their portfolio upon request to the Office of the Registrar.
 17. If credit is not approved the student may submit, in writing, a formal appeal to the department chair within 10 calendar days of the date above.
 - a. The chair may reconsider the portfolio for credit, assign the portfolio to another faculty, or uphold the decision of no credit.
 - b. The department chair shall take action within 10 calendar days of submission of the student's written appeal.
 - c. Any decision of the department chair is final. If the student's portfolio is reassigned to another faculty an additional fee shall be paid, the decision of that 2nd review cannot be appealed and is final.

Limitations

Not all departments participate in awarding credit for PL or they may limit which courses are eligible for credit through portfolio assessment. Students should check with the department prior to initiating the procedure outlined in this protocol.

Credit is awarded only for course work and experiences completed before matriculation to ECU. At least 25% of required course credit for any institutionally awarded baccalaureate program must be completed at ECU. Individual programs may establish additional restrictions to the specific number of portfolio-based credit hours or course work within their discipline they will apply to their degrees.
